Nashville Registry Week

Registry Week

- Train and volunteer to survey Nashvillians living in the streets to identify people who are medically vulnerable
- Enter survey data, so we can begin to quickly and efficiently move Nashville's most vulnerable homeless neighbors into housing
- Attend the community briefing on Friday to learn about the survey findings

Training Location & Registry Headquarters

Randee Rogers Training Center
1419 Rosa Parks Blvd
Nashville, TN 37208

Volunteer Times:

- Volunteer training: Tues, May 28, 4:30-7pm
- Surveying: Wed-Friday May 29-31, 3:30-5:30am
- Data Entry: Wed-Friday, 8-11am or 11am-2pm

Why conduct a Registry Week?

The Nashville Registry Week is a community effort to survey people experiencing homelessness on the streets in Nashville in order to better understand their health and housing needs. The efforts will result in a Vulnerability Index, which is a tool that helps prioritize the housing needs of individuals based on their well-being.
